

Air France & KLM

Select your preferred UK departure point from numerous local airports that Air France and KLM have to offer. Together the two carriers offer convenient schedules to an extensive range of destinations all around the world via their hubs in Paris and Amsterdam. On board you will experience great comfort and entertainment, ensuring you reach your chosen destination relaxed and refreshed.

Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport

Air France operates from 9 UK regional airports including London Heathrow, Manchester, Edinburgh and Birmingham to Paris Charles de Gaulle where Air France passengers can easily connect to hundreds of attractive destinations and cities all over the world. Air France provides a range of facilities at Paris Charles de Gaulle to ensure that your passage through the airport is as hassle free and enjoyable as possible.

Amsterdam Schiphol Airport

Passengers can begin their journey at one of KLM's 14 regional airports and transfer at award winning Amsterdam Schiphol Airport, KLM's efficient and user friendly hub. All facilities including the Schiphol World Avenue and its vast duty free shopping area are located under a single roof to make the transfer an enjoyable moment.

If you are a frequent flyer, why don't you register today to the Flying Blue programme?

Discover Flying Blue, the unique frequent flyer programme of Air France and KLM that will change your way of travel. It is free to join and rich in rewards. Earning Flying Blue Miles is easy when you fly with Air France, KLM or any other associated airlines. Miles can then be redeemed against flights, hotels, car rental and much more.

Flight Centre Says

Why we recommend Air France & KLM

A great option for those who don't live within easy reach of the major London airports. With services from 15 UK airports you can forget the worries of how you get to London and instead fly to an extensive range of worldwide destinations from the convenience of an airport local to you.

Two airlines work as one giving you double the number of options: fly KLM via Amsterdam in one direction and Air France via Paris in the other if the timings suit your schedule the best.

First Class

La Première: Pleasure, refinement and serenity

- A spacious cabin designed as a haven of well being
- A comfortable seat that turns into a real lie flat bed, measuring 2 metres long
- Specifically trained dedicated cabin crew providing a thoughtful and attentive service
- Creative 'a la carte' menus compiled by eminent chefs and accompanied by exceptional wines

Personalised and exclusive service at Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport

- A member of La Première team escorts each valued customer through the exclusive facilities from the moment they land in Paris to the moment they board their connecting flight
- In the serene setting of the exclusive La Première Lounge, they savour incomparable cuisine as well as special wines and cocktails
- A La Première host then accompanies each customer directly to the aircraft in a private chauffeured vehicle

Business Class

Air France Affaires

- 2 metre long spacious lie flat bed and up to 61 inch seat pitch
- Simplified seat controls and tray table wide enough to accommodate a laptop
- Meals served elegantly with an extensive range of fine wines and champagnes
- Hours of on-demand in flight entertainment on a large 15 inch wide screen in 16:9 format
- Selection of international newspapers and magazines

KLM World Business Class (pictured)

- Comfortable seats, equipped with a massage option
- Delicious three course menu including authentic local dishes, prepared specially by top chefs
- Complimentary non-alcoholic and alcoholic beverages
- Interactive entertainment system, video on-demand and personal phone
- Selection of international newspapers and business magazines

Premium Voyageur Economy Comfort

Premium Voyageur (pictured)

Located between the Affaires and Voyageur cabins, Premium Voyageur offers:

- 40% more space when compared with the Economy cabin
- 38 inch seat pitch and 123 degree reclining position within your fixed-shell seat
- Complimentary champagne and a choice of 2 hot dishes
- Large and interactive video screen with audio/video on-demand

KLM Economy Comfort

Economy Comfort, located at the front of the Economy Class cabin offers:

- 35 inch legroom versus 31 inch in the standard Economy Class
- 7 inch recline, up to twice the recline compared with the Economy seat
- Faster disembarkation thanks to its location at the front of the Economy Cabin

Economy Class

Air France Voyageur

- Seat reclines to 118 degrees
- Feather-filled cushion and blanket
- Food and drink specially selected for the time of day and length of the flight
- Travel amenity kit that contains a relaxing eye mask, ear plugs and a refreshing towelette
- Personal video screens with interactive entertainment on most of our longhaul flights

KLM Economy Class (pictured)

- Seats equipped with adjustable headrests, armrests and lumbar support
- Complimentary meal and refreshments
- Extended selection of free non-alcoholic and alcoholic beverages
- Large choice of programmes with the video on-demand system on most of our longhaul flights
- Selection of international newspapers and magazines

