

Jet Airways

Fly India's premier international airline. Since its founding in 1993, Jet Airways has developed an extensive international network including a daily non-stop service from London Heathrow to Delhi as well as two daily services to Mumbai offering a choice of departures.

From there, connections are available to more than 40 Indian destinations, as well as to an expanding network including Bangkok, Singapore, Hong Kong, Kuala Lumpur, Dhaka, Kathmandu and Colombo. With Brussels Airlines, Jet Airways also offers services from Birmingham and Manchester to Delhi, Mumbai and Chennai, connecting to Jet Airways at Brussels.

Jet Airways prides itself on the quality of its passenger experience, the efficient and attentive crew are always on hand, whilst specialist chefs have created a range of western and Indian cuisine choices and your personal JetScreen system offers a virtual feast of on-demand entertainment options to every passenger. Recognising the quality of its premium offering, Jet Airways was awarded the 'Airline with Best Business Class Service in the World' at the 2010 Business Traveller Awards.
